

Belwederek is said to be one of the oldest buildings in the ZOO. Some sources say that it existed even before the Warsaw Zoological Garden was founded, and used to be part of the Aleksandrowski Park. During first years of the ZOO's existence, it housed a fur animals enclosure, with martens, polecats and raccoons among others. Today it serves as a food station.